Foreword

This year's TROJAN was designed as a token for the graduating senior. Since it is to the annual which he will turn to remember the activities and thrilling events of high school, we have tried to provide him with a lasting record of his life and those of his friends among the students and faculty.

TO WORLD PEACE

Is world peace only a shimmering mirage doomed always to disappear before the approach of reality?

Nations of the world and their peoples seem in almost complete agreement that peace is desirable. Still there are some people and perhaps the ruling forces of some nations continuing to worship greed, perpetuate international rivalry, thirst for wanton power.

Nations must work together to attain world peace. The brief experience of the world under the leadership of the United Nations certainly represents a step in the right direction.

Nations must remember that if such an international organization can accomplish even a semblance of peace on earth, they must be ready to delegate more and more power to its efforts as the years roll by. The guiding principle should be: Any organization which can use a power more effectively for the good of mankind should have that power.

One of the greatest roadblocks on the pathway to lasting peace is the precept that each nation has the right to control its own affairs as it sees fit. Each nation adopting this policy must grant the same right to other nations. Too often these ultra-nationalistic courses lead certainly to war. It should be remembered that "national sovereignty is something to be used—not hoarded."

The U. N., however, is not the basis of a peaceful world. How can nations live peacefully when there is trouble at home? Individuals must learn to live peacefully with their neighbors. Only by starting at the source can neighbors, communities, states and finally nations learn to live in peace. "Peace on earth", yes, but we should never forget that qualifying phrase—"among men of good will."

Each generation must add its contribution to world peace. Pessimists will say the goal can never be accomplished. But one thing is positive—the only way to attain a goal is to strive for it. It will not be attained soon. It may take 10 years or 50 years or a century.

Youth always has been willing to accept a challenge. In this atomic age there is no other way to turn. We must choose between peace or the destruction of civilization.

Each generation must carry the lamp of peace a little bit farther, a little bit higher.

Because we, the class of 1954 of Findlay Senior High School, believe this is the most important goal toward which we can strive, we dedicate this annual to world peace.

Superintendent of Schools
Miss Zola Jacobs

Director of Research
G. R. Constien

During this school year several important changes have taken place in the administration department of Findlay High School. Beginning December 1st, Mr. G. R. Constien, principal of FHS since 1936, was called to head a project for the study of school enrollment and population trends. Mr. A. L. Mattoon, dean of boys, was then made principal, and Mr. R. S. Miller, social problems teacher, became dean of boys.

These men, along with the members of the board of education, Miss Zola Jacobs, Findlay school superintendent, and Miss Helen Johnston, dean of girls, have worked to maintain and increase Findlay's position as having one of the finest schools in the state of Ohio. These people have put the needs and problems of the students first in their minds and have always done everything possible to help anyone who needs them. The deans especially have been and are very skilled in helping new students to become acquainted with the school and its regulations and in assisting those of the school who have problems to find the best solution to them.

The principal and superintendent work together to provide an excellent program of studies and recreation for the students. The high level of scholarship, plus the numerous social activities which are available for all, make the school year a truly enjoyable one. Not only are the students of Findlay Senior High School prepared to meet the keen competition and life of the world as far as jobs are concerned, but they are also prepared to be able to get along with those around them. These purposes are just as important in school as are the scholastic purposes... and we, the class of 1954, wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to these people for their patience and efforts.

Principal
A. L. Mattoon

PARENTS' NIGHT

An annual event at Findlay Senior High School is an occasion known as Parents' Night. The faculty extends an invitation to the parents of all F.H.S. students each autumn. This is for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the teachers with whom their sons and daughters study.

The evening's procedure usually begins with a formal program in the auditorium, although this was omitted during the 1953 school year.

The rest of the evening is devoted to informal conferences between parents and teachers. These conferences take place in the high school cafeteria, where refreshments are served during the social hour.

The Parents' Night event last fall was very well attended, and consequently, quite successful. The parents expressed their satisfaction and appreciation to many deserving people, and were permitted the opportunity to meet their children's teachers, and to find out about their children's advancements in school.

Indeed, this program is an opportunity for both parent and faculty members—one that should not be overlooked when one is ranking the social life at F.H.S.

Personnel in the building trade are being discussed by senior boys.

The Findlay Kiwanis Club sponsored its eighth annual Vocational Guidance conference March 9, 10 and 11, in the senior high school. R. S. Miller, vocational committee chairman, was in charge of the three-day program.

Wednesday morning Mary Drucker, assistant supervisor of vocational service of the State Department of Education in Columbus, spoke at an assembly for all students. She discussed the things we should know in regard to choosing a vocation.

A series of discussion groups were scheduled for the first and second periods Thursday, while a third group, discussing any questions about vocations, was set up in the cafeteria for the remainder of the morning.

The right job is important not only to the individual but also to his country. The entire student body is indeed grateful to everyone connected with this worthwhile project.

The highlight of the year's social calendar was the eighth annual coronation of the football queen on October 22. This event took place between the halves of the Findlay-Marion Hazing game.

Queen Roberta Doxsey and her escort, twin brother Robert Doxsey, arrived in a convertible amidst a fanfare of trumpets. Preceding the queen, a roll of drums greeted the arrival of each of her four attendants: Jeanette McDonald, Cynthia Koehler, Nancy Hartigan, and Wanda West; and their escorts: Orland Cameron, Don Schoenberger, Deke Abbott, and Karl Weick.

For the ceremony the Findlay High School band, under the direction of C. L. Hite, formed the traditional crown and played the selection, "A Pretty Girl Is Like A Melody." The coronation was concluded as the band played the FHS Alma Mater.

The queen was crowned by Dan Dindal, president of the Student Council, which supervised the election of the queen.

DANCE BAND

To the strains of Glen Miller's ever famous Moonlight Serenade another enjoyable evening of dancing is about to start. The dance band of Findlay High School furnishes entertainment to the school by rendering the latest songs.

The dance band is made up of nineteen students and is under the direction of Fred Crates, a student at Findlay College, who was also the leader while in attendance at Findlay High School. Band director C. L. Hite serves as the faculty adviser.

The dance band plays for dances after the football and basketball games. The band played also for the coronation dance.

The pep band, which plays for basketball and football pep rallies, is made up of a limited number of dance band members. They furnish music for the cheerleaders, students, and faculty members who wish to help add spirit to the athletic teams.

Backstage at a typical practice

"Curtain Going Up," a comedy production dealing with the trials and tribulations of a young, high school teacher, coaching her first production, was presented this season by members of the Junior Class.

Miss Burgess (Carolyn Galbreath) has many obstacles to face one of them being a grouchy, old janitor (Jim Atkins).

A high school romance involving the young heroine of the play Lorry (Sue Bickle) and her newspapered boy friend, Andy (Bob McCullough), along with a plot hatched by the egotistical Jack (Charles Tell), and Nancy (Sue Garner) the banker's daughter season the play with surprises.

But not all romances involve high school students, for Miss Burgess also has an admirer, Mr. Carter (Gary King), the journalism teacher.

Other members of the cast include: Jane Ritchey, Priscilla Newton, Charles Roche, Marybelle Hover, Max Baney, Beth Phillips, Jane Firmin, Sandra Williams, Sandra Katz and Phyllis Andrews.

The play was under the direction of Wilbur E. Hall.

John Patrick's romantic drama, "The Willow and I," was dramatized on April 23, by members of the Senior Class.

The plot of the story centers around the lives of two sisters Mara (Joyce Rockwell) and Bessie (Ann Fausnaugh). In 1900 the young sisters are in love with the same tall young man named Robin (Karl Weick). Mara is frail and gentle; Bessie, robust and assertive and used to getting what she wants with little struggle. But it is the gentle Mara the young man loves and is planning to marry—but never does! Bessie tries to kill herself; Mara, finding her sister with a revolver, attempts to get it away from her. During the struggle Mara is shocked out of reality. Her mind cowers back from the violence and runs into hiding in terror. For forty years the girl lives in her clock-stopped mind on her summer wedding day. And then, in the violence of a summer storm, Mara awakens to find herself years older and the whole world changed about her. She finds that Bessie has lied about the events of the day; that her lover married Bessie and has died; and that they have a son Kirk (Karl Weick) who is very much like his father. One may easily guess whose face Mara first sees when she returns to reality and what it does to her.

Other members of the cast were James Sehnert, Don Schoenberger, Duane Stratton, Ralph Frech, Jackie Volkmer, Cynthia Koehler, Sarah Schott, and Nancy Young.

Findlay High School is noted for its emphasis on scholarship; and perhaps the highlight of the scholastic year is the State Scholarship Tests taken in the Spring. These examinations are of a specialized nature, in which the scholastic leaders of the school strive for recognition.

From much competition three students plus an alternate comprise the final team, which in turn is sent to Bowling Green in hopes of winning state recognition.

In tribute of the word and effort put forth by our honor students an annual Scholarship Dinner is given each Spring. This year sixty-two students were honored.

Heading the scholarship committee was Mr. Phillips with Mr. Dull, Miss Boyer, Mr. Brandenberger, and Mr. Yawberg as assistants.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council organization is composed of twenty two members, one representative from each homeroom. During the past year, its work has centered around the supervision of the election of the homecoming queen and her court, the sponsorship of an exceptional Talent Day and the assistance with the local Kiwanis Club in promoting the annual vocational guidance clinic.

The Student Council attained its goal this year to bring together in closer understanding the faculty and the student body. The problems expressed by the students were solved and changes and revisions were made to fit the new increasing needs of the school. Working together or separately these members all strove to represent and further the best interests of the entire student body. Indeed the Student Council succeeded in promoting the ideals for which Finlay Senior High School stands. Honesty, friendliness, leadership, and superior conduct and behavior.

One of the many duties of a senior adviser—assisting in the details of class

SENIOR ADVISERS

At the close of every school year, 35 girls are elected from the next year's senior class to be members of the Senior Advisers organization. It is an honor to be a member of this group, for only girls with good scholastic records, high character, and pleasing personalities may belong.

During the first few weeks of school, each member is assigned to a few sophomore girls to make their new experience in high school an easier and more pleasant one. This fall the Senior Advisers held their important annual function: The Girls' Mixer. This activity makes it possible for sophomore, and new junior and senior girls to become more easily acquainted with their classmates.

The Red Cross Council consists of a representative from each homeroom. Together, these representatives form a small part of the Hancock County Red Cross Chapter.

This year the council sponsored its annual enrollment project and was in charge of filling the Red Cross boxes, which were sent to children overseas.

Miss Bernice Kettler is the council sponsor, and president of the council is Dave Cryer. Kayleen DeVore and Phyllis Andrews are council representatives to the Hancock County Red Cross Chapter, Junior Red Cross.

Each year the Girls' Athletic Association opens its membership to a large group of girls. The 1953-54 school year saw one hundred girls place their names as candidates on the membership list.

Membership for the GAA is based upon a point system. Upon obtaining a total of 200 points including certain tests and requirements, the candidates become eligible for an award.

Through the club the girls have an opportunity to express themselves in an athletic way. At different times throughout the year various coaches speak to the club concerning different sports. Members are taught the importance of sports and fair play in any type of competition.

Miss Esther March, FHS girls' physical education director capably filled the position as the club's faculty adviser.

ORCHESTRA

Again during the 53-54 school year, Findlay Senior High School's fifty-five piece orchestra presented a well rounded program.

There was an all orchestra program presented to a capacity crowd by the grade, junior, and senior high group combined.

Members of the orchestra were chosen to play in the All-State Symphony Orchestra again this year. The State String Teachers' Association heard music presented by a group of students of which some members of the high school orchestra were a part. High ratings were awarded to certain orchestra members during some contests.

Solos and ensembles were presented for numerous occasions. Individuals have also co-operated in providing music for high school chapels, banquets, and other meetings.

The orchestra and vocal music department combined to present the operetta, "Kiss Me, Kate."

Oliver Schumacher for many years has very nicely filled the position of director of the FHS Orchestra. Together with the students and our director, the halls will continue to be filled with the symphonic and semi-classical music provided by the orchestra.

CONCERT BAND

Under the auspices of Director Clifford L. Hite and his assistant Ralph Shell, the Findlay High eighty-four piece marching band performed with unique formations and brilliant precision during the football game half-times.

The Concert Band presented several concerts during the year.

Findlay was host to the Northwest Regional Orchestra; and it has several representatives in the State Orchestra which played at Columbus.

The Band offers competition in the Solo and Ensemble Contests. Anyone who desires may enter the Contest at Lima, and if they win, they can continue to the State Contests.

The band also relaxes with popular dance music which is apparent in the Dance Band under the direction of Fred Crates. This group provided pep music for the basketball games and dance music for several after-game dances.

This organization not only provided interest and enjoyment for the members, but also for everyone who heard it. The Band is an institution of which to be proud.

CHOIR

This group, under the supervision of W. Oscar Jones, provided an outlet for FHS's musically inclined students in the vocal department.

The scholars displayed their talents in the annual Eisteddfod and fourteen winners were eligible to compete in the District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Lima. The regional contest was then open to these winners.

The choir contributed to each chapel program besides holding several song fests for local business organizations.

During the Christmas season the Carolers stepped into full swing. The annual Christmas Festival was held with the grade, junior, and senior high choirs participating.

Soon after the second semester began, rehearsals for the operetta started with Miss Ruth Switzer as dramatics coach. Through much work "Kiss Me Kate" met with its much deserved success on March 25th and 26th.

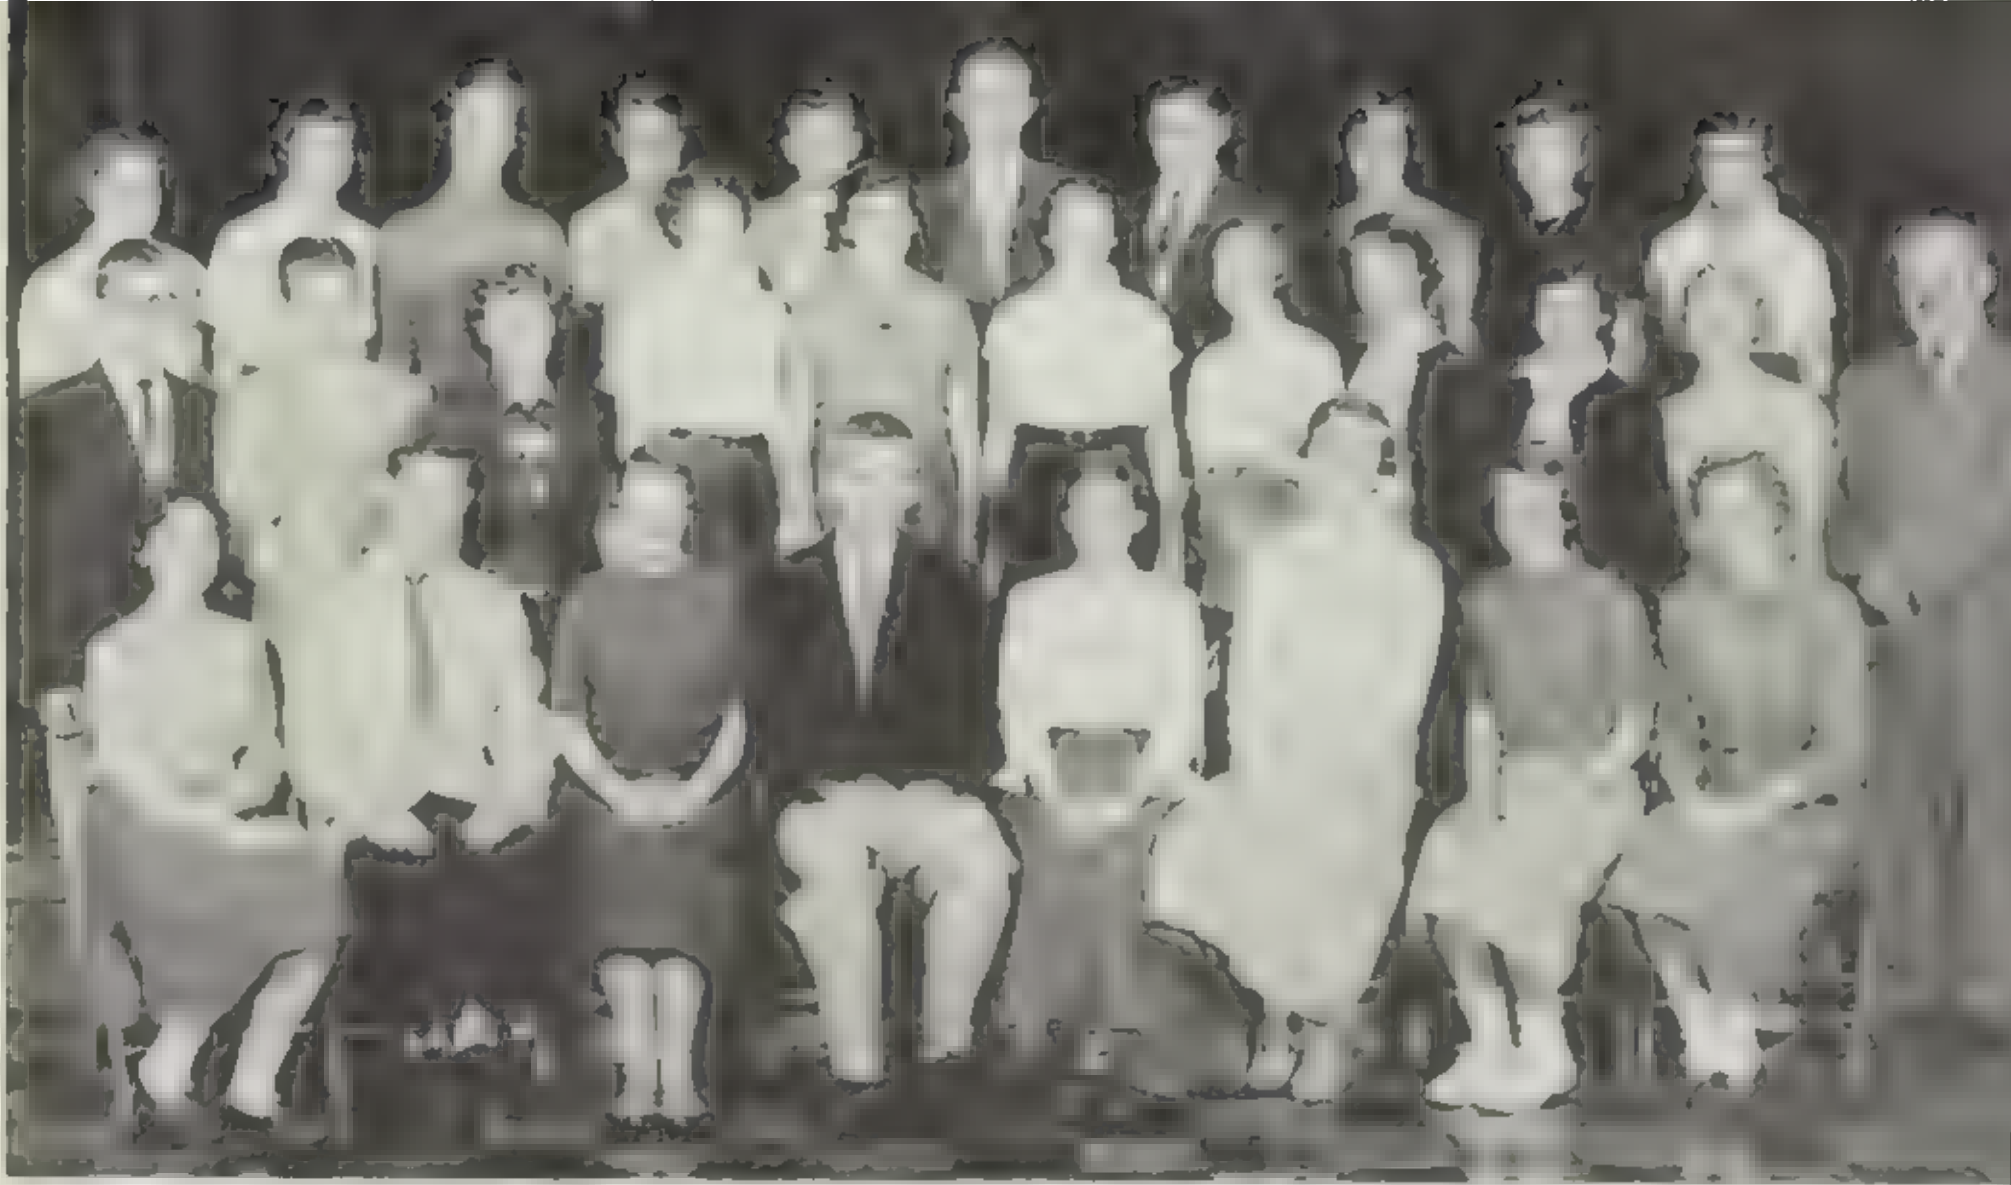

During National Music Week, Findlay played host to the Buckeye League Chorus in the combined festival.

The last opportunity for the Senior members of the choir to participate in a choir activity came at the Senior Chapel. This was highlighted by the traditional "Memories".

THE NEW LOOK

Robert Werley; Douglas Avery; Robert Harter.

This year marked the beginning of a new era of Findlay High School football. A completely new coaching staff handled the boys this year and proved to be very capable. Moving up from Junior Varsity Coach to Head Coach was Bob Harter. He played high school football at Toledo DeVilbiss and graduated from Bowling Green State University before coming to Findlay. Doug Avery served his first year as line coach. He went to Ohio Wesleyan and Bowling Green, and he played some football in the U. S. Navy. Bob Werley, former Findlay College star, served his initial year as both backfield coach and Junior Varsity Coach. Findlay Senior High School is proud of their new coaching staff and wishes them best of luck in seasons to come.

GLIMPSES OF THE GRIDIRON

INDLAY

Coach Harter's Trojans were noted for their variety of play. They got off to a slow start but they began to hit their stride in the Bowling Green game on the strength of Ray Silerd's two scintillating touchdown runs. After a resounding defeat by Fremont, the Buckeye League Champs, the Trojans bounced back to hit one of the high points of the season. They knocked off undefeated, ninth-ranked Dayton Roosevelt in a tight defensive game. Homecoming saw the Trojans lose to Marion, but the next week again bounced back to defeat Tiffin Columbian. Favored Sandusky was held to a scoreless tie in a game which featured a tremendous goal-line stand by the Trojans. In the most successful game of their respective high school careers, the Trojans trounced arch-rival, Fostoria, by a lop-sided 39-0 score, with both offense and defense clicking. With five players hitting the scoring column the Trojans decided they were going to do just what Coach Harter said: "First, beat Fostoria; second, shut them out; and third, run up a score." It is said that football players always remember their last game; the Trojans of '54 are having pleasant memories!

COURT CAPERS

Lack of experience proved to be the downfall of the Trojan Basketeers this past season, but although their record was not the best it was certainly nothing of which to be ashamed. To add more to Bachman's woes Virgil Yoxthimer, who was destined to be a "big gun" in Findlay's attack this year, was able to see only limited action because of a knee injury suffered during football season.

Two sophomores, two juniors, and one senior comprised Findlay's starting lineup this year in the person of John Johnson, Rodney Shafer, Dave Barnes, Dave Miller, and Ray Siferd, respectively. Although Miller was only a junior, he will be absent from the hardwoods next year because of the age limit rule.

At the opening of the season the Trojans couldn't decide whether they wanted to win or lose in dropping every other game up to the Fremont encounter. Then they decided, and lost two straight.

The Trojans, however, had had a big enough taste of defeat and came back to win their next six games in a row before dropping the final contest of the season to arch rival Fostoria. This gave the Trojans a 10-8 won lost record going into the tournament. However, an inspired Kenton team, seeking revenge for an earlier defeat at the hands of the Trojans, put the Findlay boys out of contention by eking out a 60-58 win.

The high point of the season was undoubtedly reached when the Trojans knocked off highly favored Fremont Ross, which incidently was ranked ninth in the state by the A.P. poll, by a score of 65-56. The Fremonters never gave the Trojans the slightest bit of trouble and at no time was Findlay's lead threatened. The Blue and Gold displayed great floor mastery in this game and showed great teamwork.

Congratulations should go to all of the Trojan basketeers and especially to Dave Miller, who led the boys in scoring this season and also set a new F.H.S. record with 351 points, an average of 19.5 per game. Miller's one-handed set shot from out front became a familiar sight to Findlay fans.

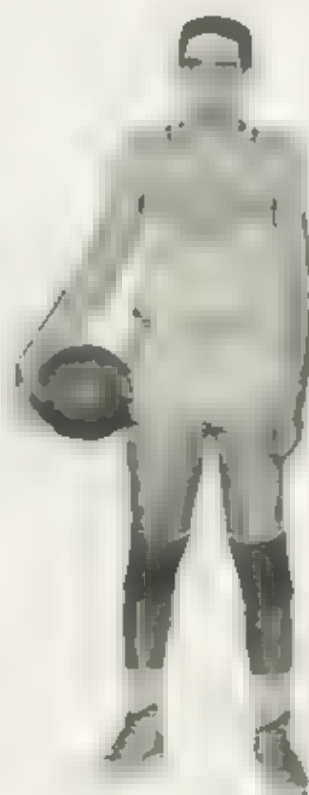

Credit should also go to Ray Siferd, who by his sparkling defensive play, and brilliant offensive playmaking, was forever a thorn in the opponents' side.

We are proud of our boys and we are looking forward to another great year on the hardwoods in the 1954-1955 season.

CLASSROOM...

4 miles underground?

It looks like an oil well. It is.

But as the picture was taken, the diamond-tipped bit had just broken the world's record. It was entering a brand new "classroom"—nearly 4 miles underground.

The Ohio Oil Company had sent it there, at a cost of $1,500,000, to find out if there are new sources of oil waiting at depths never before explored.

As these words are written, it is not yet known whether or not this well will ever produce any oil.

But it's sure to produce something even more important: knowledge. New knowledge.

And so long as we live in a country where individuals and companies have the incentive to search for new knowledge . . . to find the new way, the better way . . . this nation will continue to move forward.

For progress comes from pioneering . . . from a constant search with minds and dollars . . . to find what is waiting to be found.

It comes from attending "classrooms" that are as vast as our own minds . . . as big as our lifetimes.
